Organization Is Needed For Campaign On Hawaii

Reports that came in this morning from the Island of Hawaii were of a nature to set the Republican

It appears that the doctrines Candidate McCandless has been preaching on the Big Island have given the voters an catirely erroneous idea of the facts of the situation. A great many of the voters after hearing the Democratic candidate make his spiel have gone away with the idea that if they vote for "Link" they will get 160 acres of land right off the reel.

Of course it is assumed that Mc-Candless will deny that he has made any such promise, but if the ignorant have got such an idea he is not known to have striven hard to disthuse them of the thought.

Furthermore, the Republican pary on the Island is not in fighting Its organization has been de-Some of the men say they ive been waiting orders from Honoulu. In any event, there was no one to meet Delegate Kuhio when he arived in Hilo and no program had een mapped out for his tour.

Shortly after his arrival a number of the Hilo wheel horses in politics got together and in a short time had things going at a lively rate. The result is that the tour of the Delegate has done much to offset Mc-Candless as far as it has gone. here is much more to do.

of an impression than McClanahan ses. ever did among the native Hawaiians. and the other portion of the population of the Island appears to be wonderfully lukewarm over what may happen in politics.

The returns from some of the po litical workers received in this morning's mail served to put the party managers of this city on their boot Everything has been waiting for funds, and the decision of Judge Dole. It appears that the Democrat c campaign has gone forward withut any trouble over funds.

Consequently the word has been passed down the line that it is time for the Republicans and their sympathizers to wake up and get into line for a first-class brisk fight.

A well-trained drill team composed of members of both Excelsior and Harmony Lodges, I. O. O. F., will confor degrees hereafter. This is the first time that a well-organized team has been gotten together, and at the department, and will be built at a drill last night, the combination team cost of about $2,000,000. The bids that the Democratic party gave Mcshowed that it was in good condition. Monday night three neophites will be given the first degree in Odd Fellow-ship by the team. Visiting brothers are cordially invited.
